

Theology for All

helping Christians to think theologically

Theology is not the preserve of an intellectual elite. It is the privilege of every Christian believer and inextricably linked to every aspect of life. Membership of Theology for All (formerly Tyndale Fellowship Associates) is for all who want to keep up-to-date with developments in biblical or theological study. Our members include Pastors, students and others from a diverse range of professions.

Theology for All is a part of the ministry of the Tyndale Fellowship. The Tyndale Fellowship is a fellowship of Christians engaged in biblical and theological research. Its aim is to promote the Christian faith through careful and honest study done in a spirit of commitment to Christ and historic Christianity.

The TFA aims to make the fruits of current biblical and theological research accessible to all.

2007 Conference

- Date: Saturday 22nd September 2007
- Time: 10.30am – 4.00pm
- Venue: Christ Church, Mayfair (London)
- Cost: Members: £10, Non-members: £15
- Speaker: Mark Dever (Capitol Hill Baptist, Washington DC)

Drawing on his expertise in the fields of ecclesiastical and historical theology, Mark Dever will address the following subjects:

- Lessons from the Past
What lessons should today's Church learn from this past, particularly the Puritans.
- Lessons for the Present
Building biblically faithful churches today.
- Looking to the Future
Given the new issues now facing Christians in the West which may put pressure on Churches not to stand against the tide – how can good theology help us?
